FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This case has been referred to the United States Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and a standing order of reference from the district court. The Findings, Conclusions and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge follow:

I.

Plaintiff is proceeding pro se and has filed this complaint against Defendants alleging employment discrimination. After reviewing the complaint and the applicable law, the Court concludes that this case should be transferred.

Plaintiff alleges she suffered employment discrimination at Defendants' workplace in Tarrant County, Texas. Plaintiff also resides in Tarrant County. Tarrant County is located in the Fort Worth Division of the Northern District of Texas.

Congress has recognized that substantial advantages may be gained by having the case resolved in the court located nearest the site of the underlying controversy. Braden v. 30th Judicial Circuit Court of Kentucky, 410 U.S. 484, 497 (1973). The terms of 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a)

Findings, Conclusions and Recommendation
of the United States Magistrate Judge

provide that “[f]or the convenience of parties and witnesses, in the interest of justice, a district court may transfer any civil action to any other district or division where it might have been brought.” A court may transfer a case upon a motion or sua sponte. See 28 U.S.C. § 1404. The court has broad discretion in deciding whether to order a transfer. Caldwell v. Palmetto State Savings Bank of South Carolina, 811 F.2d 916, 919 (5th Cir. 1987); accord Mills v. Beech Aircraft Corp., Inc., 886 F.2d 758, 761 (5th Cir. 1989).

The incidents out of which Plaintiff’s claims arise occurred within the Fort Worth Division of the Northern District of Texas. The records and potential witnesses would be readily accessible there, making the Fort Worth Division of the Northern District of Texas a more convenient forum. See Bell v. Watkins, 692 F.2d 999, 1013 (5th Cir. 1982).

II.

For the foregoing reasons, the Court hereby recommends that this case be transferred to the Fort Worth Division of the Northern District of Texas.

Signed this 3rd day of October, 2016.

PAUL D. STICKNEY
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO OBJECT

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of this report and recommendation must file specific written objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). In order to be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's report and recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).
